Preference for employment on Irrigation Project Establishments to the project affected persons.

GOVERNMENT OF MAHARASHTRA,
Revenue and Forests Department,
Resolution No. RPA-1071/177785/R-1,
Sachivalaya, Bombay 32 BR.,
Dated the 20th November 1973.

RESOLUTION : In Government Circular, General Administration Department No. RPA-1071/177785/R-1, dated the 28th January 1971, it was laid down that preference to the project affected persons including their dependents for the purpose of appointment to subordinate posts on Project Establishments concerned should be shown with due regard to the relevant recruitment rules as regards age limit, educational qualifications. It was also directed that the project affected persons should register their names with the Local Employment Exchange in order to avail themselves of the concession for appointment to subordinate posts on the project establishment concerned on priority basis.

2. Government has reconsidered the question regarding preference for employment to be shown to the project affected persons and is pleased to direct that the project affected persons should be given the highest priority for employment in the Irrigation project establishments without having to register themselves with the Employment Exchanges. However, whenever a project affected person is appointed directly the vacancy in which he is appointed by the Project authorities to the Employment Exchange in compliance with the provisions of Employment Exchange (compulsary Notification of Vacancies) Act, 1959. These orders are issued in consultation with the Industries and Labour Department.
